
Andrea Felici

Verdicchio dei Castelli di Jesi Classico DOP

Between the Adriatic Sea and the Apennine Mountains, gentle rolling hills and green valleys provide the home for Andrea Felici. The soil is a mixture of calcareous clay and limestone, lengthening ripening and balancing acidity. The hills are well exposed to gentle breezes, making the perfect setting for Verdicchio. This excellent expression of the grape is crisp and aromatic. It's a 'green' wine, with light herbs, a light saltiness of the sea, and notes of minerals.
