
Virna Borgogno

Barolo "Preda Sarmassa" DOCG

Virna Borgogno and her husband, Orlando Abrigo, make some of the finest Barolo and Barbaresco in Piemonte. Having owned vineyards in Barolo since 1720, the Borgogno family has a storied history of wine-making. Virna stamps her own style on today's Barolo, and the "La Preda" and "Sarmassa" vineyards produce some of the finest Nebbiolo grapes in the region. Wine Spectator says, "Strawberry pie aromas, with lemon peel underneath. Full-bodied, with chewy tannins and a long finish. This is focused and concentrated for the vintage. - JS" This is an amazing with that will drink well for many years to come.
